MEDIA RELEASE
(FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE)

TEMPORARY RESTRICTION OF SOME SECTIONS ON MR118 (ROSH PINAH TO ORANJEMUND ROAD) TO ONE-WAY TRAFFIC

The Roads Authority (RA) hereby informs the public about the temporary restrictions on some sections of Main Road 118 (Rosh Pinah to Oranjemund) to one-way traffic due to ongoing repair works.

The following sections will be restricted to one-way traffic effective from 31 January to 09 July 2024:

- One-way traffic on sections 1 and 2 between kilometers (km) 193 and 195 (measured from Aus). A 24-hour stop/go operation has been implemented on these sections for the duration of the repairs.
- One-way traffic on section 3 between km 221 and 222 (measured from Aus). A stop/go operation has also been in effect for 12 hours (daytime only). Two-way traffic flow will be permitted on this section in the evenings.

Temporary bypasses have been constructed at the affected sections. Thus, motorists are kindly requested to exercise extra caution when traveling on this road and to adhere to the erected road signs at all times.

For updates on national road conditions and all RA-related matters, please follow us on our Facebook page (Roads Authority- RA Namibia).
